LOCATION & TRANSPORTATION

Northampton is the 7th largest town in the UK and located in the East Midlands of England and lies on the River Nene. Northampton sits approximately 67 miles to the north west of London, 45 miles south east of Birmingham and 30 miles north east of Oxford.

ROAD

Northampton benefits from excellent road links. The M1 is positioned 4.3 miles (17 minutes) south west and connects Northampton to London (south), Birmingham (north-west) and Sheffield, Leeds and Manchester (North).

BUS

North Gate Bus Station, opened in 2014, is located immediately north of The Grosvenor Centre and is predominately operated by Stagecoach, providing inner and outer town routes. The National Express bus station is located in close proximity to the centre, on Upper Mounts car park off Victoria Street.

RAIL

Northampton Railway Station is located on the western side of the town. The station, served by West Midlands Trains, provides regular direct commuter services to London Euston and to Birmingham New Street in fastest journey times of 56 minutes and 61 minutes respectively. Pre-Covid, Northampton Railway Station served over 3.3 million passengers per year, measured by entry and exit count.

AIR

Birmingham International Airport is approximately 42 miles north-west of Northampton and offers both domestic and international flights. Birmingham Airport is the third largest airport in the UK outside of London. London Luton Airport sits 39 miles south east of Northampton, accessed from the M1 Motorway.

East Midlands Airport is situated 52 miles to the north of Northampton. The airport is a major air cargo hub, making it 2nd busiest UK airport for freight traffic after London Heathrow.

Northampton is the 7th largest town in the UK and located in the East Midlands of England

LOCATION

Grosvenor Shopping is a modern shopping centre in the fast growing town of Northampton (population growth is 60% above UK average), with a diverse mix of shoppers, workers and students.

Overlap with Rushden Lakes is minimal and limited to sectors east of Weston Favell, where the minority of Northampton's shoppers live.
